

Creative Entrepreneur Accelerator Program

The Creative Entrepreneur Accelerator Program is a new program funded by the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts (PCA), a state agency under the Office of the Governor, and administered regionally by the Pennsylvania Partners in the Arts (PPA), PCA's statewide network of re-granting partners. The Lehigh Valley Community Foundation serves as the PCA's PPA partner organization for Carbon, Lehigh, Monroe, and Northampton Counties.

The Creative Entrepreneur Accelerator Program is designed to:

- Pair creative entrepreneurs with existing small business consulting services.
- Help creative entrepreneurs grow their business, audience, and revenue.
- Provide financial resources through grants of $2,000.
- Advance the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts' overarching value of diversity, equity, and inclusion.
- Prioritize investments to creative entrepreneurs who identify as Black, Indigenous, or people of color (BIPOC).
- Prioritize investments to creative entrepreneurs located in and whose work benefits low-income communities as defined by the Small Business Administration.

Eligibility Criteria

Entrepreneurs are eligible to apply for the Creative Entrepreneur Accelerator Program once every three years. Applicants must:

- Be at least 18 years of age and a current resident of Pa. for at least one year.

How to Apply

Lehigh Valley Community Foundation needs to receive a Referral Form from a participating Referral Partner to begin the Creative Entrepreneur Accelerator Program (CEAP) application process.

CEAP Referral Form

New clients should choose a referral coordinator that serves their area and follow the initial steps outlined on the referral list. Once connected to the referral coordinator, clients will need to complete at least one consultation regarding a business formation or development activity.

- Existing or past clients of any referral partner on the list, may reach out to their contact to request a referral to the Creative Entrepreneur Accelerator Program.
- The referral coordinator will submit the referral form to LVCF on your behalf.
- If eligible to apply, the referred entrepreneur will receive an invitation to apply via email. If the entrepreneur is not found eligible to apply, we will either follow up with the entrepreneur via email to gather more eligibility information or send an email explaining why they are not eligible.

The application form will be online and access will be given to those who are invited to apply.

Please note: A referral of an entrepreneur to the Creative Entrepreneur Accelerator Program does not guarantee a grant will be made.
